- The following named gentlemen are authorized to receive and receipt for subscriptions to the State Rights Democrat in this county: Moore & Baber, Harburg, Pine, Paul Claver, New Brownville, S. A. John, Brownville, G. C. Cooley, Brownville, J. M. Haydon, Peoria, J. M. Johns, Seia, J. R. Thorpe, Lebanon, Harvey Smith, Adam Nye.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

SENATORIAL ACCIDENT.—John Davis, a young man of about 20 years of age, the son of Caleb Davis of Peoria precinct, was severely injured on Thursday last, while engaged in driving a team with a heavy load of oats, about five miles above Peoria.

FIRE FLOOD.—During the week we received from Mr. L. S. Burkhardt some boxes of plum trees, heavily laden with the delicious fruit, which were grown in the fine orchard of that gentleman a mile or two from town.

THE STEAMER ERYA.—This new opposition steamer reached Albany last Monday noon from Canemah, notwithstanding the lax stage of water. She will run here regularly hereafter during the season.

BRICK STORES.—Three or four new brick stores are now nearly completed along the main business street in Albany, and we hear of others that are soon to be commenced upon.

NEW DWELLINGS.—In every section of the town new dwellings are going up, and still the demand for residence houses continues. It is an exaggeration for us to say that Albany has doubled in the number of houses in the last two years.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—We see Judge Powell on the street occasionally. He is as pretty as ever. He appears to be one of the "short hairs" now.

GRAIN COING IN.—The farmers are hauling a good deal of wheat to town now-a-days. Crankford's mill is getting the bulk of it.

SINGULAR PROCEEDINGS.

A case of a very singular nature, occurred in Albany a few days ago. On the night of Aug. 5th, a warrant was issued for the arrest of an individual in which he was charged with "assault and battery, with intent to commit a rape." The man was arrested late at night. Judge Powell, at that late hour, appointed W. A. McPherson, Esq., a Justice of the Peace to examine into the case.

The Oregonian basely falsifies when it says Democrats wanted "the assassin of Mr. Lincoln released." It cannot show to corroborate its atrocious calumny, a single line or word uttered by any Democrat, to that effect. Some Democrats have said, and so we believe also, that the hanging of Mrs. Surratt was a murder, and a disgrace to the country.

The tone and animus of the Oregonian in reference to this Patterson affair is but the reflex of its Abolition theories in the State. Patterson, two or three years ago, killed Capt. Staples in Portland, under such apparent provocation that, even before an unfriendly Court, tried by an Abolition jury, and prosecuted by the strongest array of employed counsel in the State, he was acquitted.

It is a little remarkable that these papers alluded to can see no "assassins" in the men of their own party who sneak up behind Democrats, shoot them dead, and this without any provocation whatever. Nor can they find any fault in the administration of justice when the Abolition Courts virtually screen the assassins from punishment, nor speak of letting "murderers" loose upon society, when the Abolition Courts have done so.

JOHN C. BARKER.—Late advices report this distinguished rebel to have sailed from Havana, July 7th, for Europe.

ATROCIOUS AND MENDACIOUS.

The following paragraph is from the Oregonian of Thursday:

Fred. Patterson, the assassin of Mr. Pinkham of Idaho City, it is said, has been discharged. This is the manner in which the "Democracy" administered justice. Had the circumstances been precisely reversed and Pinkham killed Patterson, nothing could have prevented the "Democracy" of Idaho City from taking the slayer's life.

A more atrocious and mendacious paragraph has rarely ever been given utterance, even in the Oregonian, than the one above. The writer seizes the occasion of Patterson's discharge to vent his volume of venom and falsehood against the Democracy.

Fred. Patterson killed Pinkham in a difficulty provoked by the latter, in which both parties exchanged shots. The act of self-defense is so apparent in Patterson's case that a grand jury fails to find a true bill against him for murder.

But it is not the acquittal of Patterson, as a man, that so calls out the malice and spleen of the Oregonian. It is because he is a Democrat and Pinkham was an Abolitionist, that that paper so raves in its fury. And it says "this is the manner in which the 'Democracy' administered justice." It so happens that the Court of Idaho is presided over by Abolition Judges, John R. McBride, late Representative of Oregon in Congress, being Chief Justice.

What reason has the Oregonian for such a remark? When have the Democracy of that city, or any other, taken life by law, or without law executed a person charged with or guilty of murder? We defy the wanton falsifier to cite one instance. But how stands the case on its own party side? There is in the upper corner, from Umatilla and Walla Walla County, and Beaver Head, an organized mob, known as a Vigilance Committee, who have taken life without law, perhaps in some cases without reason. It is in keeping with the teachings, the spirit and practices of the Oregonian's party, to lawlessly and by mobs take life, and trample upon and defy the laws. Had Patterson been really guilty of murder, the Democrats of Idaho City would have approved his lawful conviction just as readily as they approved of his acquittal when lawfully declared not culpable.

The Oregonian basely falsifies when it says Democrats wanted "the assassin of Mr. Lincoln released." It cannot show to corroborate its atrocious calumny, a single line or word uttered by any Democrat, to that effect. Some Democrats have said, and so we believe also, that the hanging of Mrs. Surratt was a murder, and a disgrace to the country.

The tone and animus of the Oregonian in reference to this Patterson affair is but the reflex of its Abolition theories in the State. Patterson, two or three years ago, killed Capt. JOHN C. BARKER.—Late advices report this distinguished rebel to have sailed from Havana, July 7th, for Europe.

AN EXTRA SESSION AND THE DISFRANCHISEMENT OF EMIGRANTS.

In his letter to the Statesman from Bowling Green, Missouri, June 25th, the Hon. J. H. D. Henderson, Representative from Oregon, thus expresses himself:

I have been expecting to hear of a call for an extra session of the Oregon Legislature to ratify the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and also to enact some laws by which rebels, who have borne arms against the United States, shall be excluded from voting in Oregon. I do not think it probable that such a call will be made.

Here we have the whole thing in a nutshell. Henderson is so alarmed for fear the Legislature will not meet in extra session that he must ventilate his anxiety before the people. The ratification of the proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution is to be made the safeguard to convene that body, in order that the more vital legislation may be had to disfranchise citizens who do not vote the Abolition ticket, and who happen to be emigrants from Missouri or other States.

The subject of Negro suffrage seems likely to be a perplexing one. For my own part, while I should be willing that the natural rights of the colored man should not be infringed, or he be left in the power of tyrants, I am not willing to adopt any policy that would put down making or giving him a permanent home among the whites.

It is very apparent from his language that the blessed old hypocrite is sorely puzzled over the negro suffrage question. He is loosed from the immediate influence of the set in this State who used to control and tutor him. During his canvass here they put Negro Equality to its utmost limit in his mouth, and parrot-like he spattered it forth in all his speeches.

The Oregonian basely falsifies when it says Democrats wanted "the assassin of Mr. Lincoln released." It cannot show to corroborate its atrocious calumny, a single line or word uttered by any Democrat, to that effect. Some Democrats have said, and so we believe also, that the hanging of Mrs. Surratt was a murder, and a disgrace to the country.

The tone and animus of the Oregonian in reference to this Patterson affair is but the reflex of its Abolition theories in the State. Patterson, two or three years ago, killed Capt. Staples in Portland, under such apparent provocation that, even before an unfriendly Court, tried by an Abolition jury, and prosecuted by the strongest array of employed counsel in the State, he was acquitted.

The Negro Suffrage Dilemma.

The Abolitionists are puzzled to know what to do in regard to negro suffrage. When the first news that the war was over reached them, nearly all favored it, because they thought that the negroes South would vote their ticket, and thus offset the foreign adopted citizen and the native Southern vote.

It is a little remarkable that these papers alluded to can see no "assassins" in the men of their own party who sneak up behind Democrats, shoot them dead, and this without any provocation whatever. Nor can they find any fault in the administration of justice when the Abolition Courts virtually screen the assassins from punishment, nor speak of letting "murderers" loose upon society, when the Abolition Courts have done so.

In Clatsop county, by Rev. Mr. Knight, on Sunday the 13th inst., Mr. Chancey Ball and Miss Maggie C. Edwards, all of Portland.

In Clatsop county, July 10th, by G. W. Jackson, J. P. M. Oliver to Miss Margaret J. Todd, all of Clatsop county.

In Clatsop county, July 10th, by G. W. Jackson, J. P. M. Oliver to Miss Margaret J. Todd, all of Clatsop county.

STATE AND COAST ITEMS.

An important suit of the heirs of Daniel H. Lowndes, deceased, against Corbett, Arriagon, and other defendants, involving the ownership to certain town lots in Portland, was decided last week in that city by Judge Stanton. He decided the defendants to pay, in ratio of ownership, the total of $30,155.02 to the plaintiffs.

The steamer Cal. Wright has been dismasted. Her last trip up Snake river in July broke her up so badly that she was not worth repairing. It is mentioned as a strange coincidence that her dismasting commenced on the very day Gen. Wright—in honor of whom she was named—went down in the Brother Jonathan.

A mining corporation under the name of the Oregon City Company, has been organized in Clatsop county, by A. F. Helges, H. Straight, Robert Caulfield and B. Jennings as incorporators.

The People's Transportation Company propose to construct a trestle and dam at the Willamette Falls, for the ready transhipment of freight from the lower to the upper river. It is high time the Company took some steps to accommodate freighters.

By way of Fort Klammath, the Sentinel learns that Superintendent Huntington had some thirty miles from the Fort to try and make a treaty with the Snake Indians.

For the six months ending June 20th, the Oregonian says, there was received at San Francisco from Oregon and Humboldt Bay, 6,485,047 feet of lumber—not reckoning the large quantities of piles, laths and shingles also sent to that port.

An exciting tracking match took place on the Portland race track on the 12th, between H. C. Leonard's Mac, and S. B. Smith's Sally, for $500, mile heats, best three in five. Mac won in straight heats. Time—3:42; 2:59.

The steamer Active, formerly of the U. S. Coast Survey, is being fitted up for regular trade between Portland and Victoria. She will be put on the route about the first of September.

The Reporter tells of the killing of Marion Smith, eleven years old, son of David Smith, in Jackson county, on the 9th. The boy was dashed against a tree by a runaway horse.

The total losses by fire in Portland during the past year aggregate but a little over $50,000. The excellent Fire Departments of that city is its best insurance against fires.

The Gazette says Corvallis is well supplied with fresh fish—salmon, rock cod, hake, pompano and perch—from Yaquina Bay. We don't like fish.

The Sierra Nevada took from Portland $90,000 in treasure on her departure for San Francisco last Wednesday evening.

The telegraphic cable to lay across the bottom of the river at Canemah has arrived in that city, and will soon be put in place.

The California Stage Company have reduced the fare from Portland to Sacramento to $50. They before charged $60.

The Willamette river, at Canemah, is within eight inches of the lowest stage of water ever recorded.

The Fremont of Portland are to have their first annual parade on Monday, Sept. 4th. The Fenians are fitting up an armory in Portland.

Walla Walla county, W. T., has 2,862 population.

Methodist Conference Appointments. The Oregon Conference of the M. E. Church, recently in session at Olympia, made appointments as follows for the ensuing year.

Walla Walla District.—W. S. Lewis, P. E.; J. W. Walla, W. T. Aug. 12th, by C. H. Mansfield, J. P. G. A. Corwell to Miss C. Messenger.
